

Magic Bus

James

All aboard, magic bus
Take a ride, become one of us
Here we are, bring our minds
To accord
We had maps, we got lost
We had plans, they got tossed
We dropped out for our love and the trust
Pledge you might drop

By these bones, by this blood
Who we are is enough
By these bones, by this blood
We exist for the bones
By these bones, by this blood
We'll divide, we are dust
We'll find God when we lost
All we've got

Only fools ride this bus
Uninsured, we are driverless
We aspire to the highs
Of a ziggurat
Spirit moves through the cracks
Our guru is a cat
Who lives both in this world and in mine
Pledge you might drop

By these bones, by this blood
Who we are is enough
By these bones, by this blood
We create for a buzz
By these bones, by this blood
We'll divide, we are dust
We'll find God when we lost
All we've got

Alright, alright
Alright, alright
Alright
