

Moving Car

James

Making out
In the back of a stolen car
Seventeen
Leather seats, tangled hair
What you said?
I believe in everything, hit the gas
Time is creeping up and it ain't slow
No, it ain't slow

Relative speed
Memories bridge now and then
Love God hard
Plane fall down over Troy deep within the grass
Arrowheads, shards of vase, storage lots
Time rewinds the past and it ain't slow

This pirate's drunk
From your cup of amnesty, became a monk
The love of ghosts, Titanic sunk
No, it ain't slow

We drive, we drive, we drive so fast
Jumping out of a moving car
We drive, we drive, we drive too fast
Jumping out of a moving car
We drive, we drive, we drive too fast
Jumping out of a moving car

We drive, we drive, we drive too fast
Jumping out of a moving car, okay
Okay
If nothing is less than zero
How come your absence causes me this pain?
Okay, okay
Understand we're alone

I believe in everything
I lost this feeling long ago, in the school yard
I believe in everything
Enough pretending that we know how this game's played

We've lived many lives
Journeyed across the time
Dropped off by the side of the road like a
Christmas duck
Open mouth surprise
We've lived many lives
Journeyed across the time
Open mouthed resuscitation
Tears we almost, tears we almost drowned

Tears we almost, tears we almost drowned
