

Tonight

James

Tonight I had this dream but my vision was cracked
Drifting away you said you're not coming back
You're moving out while I'm flat on my back
What are you doing to me

You're making me happy
I was always sad
Whenever I'm happy my dreams are sad

Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight

We must go on now there's no turning back
Kiss my defenses with one of those counter attacks
I'm exposed, shown you too much
Now you're invading my dreams

Making me happy I was always sad
Afraid to be happy, that's so sad

Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight

Something's burning in my kitchen
Stop that smiling, something's smoking
Soon be crying, soon be broken
Fire, fire, fire

Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight
Make me happy tonight
