

Bringing It Back

Jameson Rodgers

I heard it was a bad breakup
But she don't really like to say much
About all that back then
And I ain't asking

She spent a month home at her mama's place
Hasn't given any guy the time of day
This town ain't seen it in a while
But that long lost smile

I'm bringing it back
I'm taking it slow
I'm playing her all the right songs on the radio
I'm bringing it back
Like it ain't nothing new
Like only a good ol' boy knows how to do
That rock and roll down a dirt road
Wild fire in her eyes she used to have
I'm bringing it back

I ain't just another rebound
At midnight trying to lay the seat down
That pick her up, get out and get the door
You don't see much anymore

I'm bringing it back
I'm taking it slow
I'm playing her all the right songs on the radio
I'm bringing it back
Like it ain't nothing new
Like only a good ol' boy knows how to do
That rock and roll down a dirt road
Wild fire in her eyes she used to have
I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back
Yeah

That real-deal treat a girl the right way
Might not be cool these days

But I'm bringing it back
I'm taking it slow
Reminding her how free falling is supposed to go
I'm bringing it back
Like it ain't nothing new
Like only a good ol' boy like me can do
That rock and roll down a dirt road
Wild fire in her eyes she used to have
That first date stop at first base
Old school kinda cool, kinda bad
I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back

Yeah, I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back
I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back
I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back, I'm bringing it back, yeah
