

Missing One

Jameson Rodgers

I had every Eagles record
Center console in a stack
When we split up, she still had Desperado
And I never asked for it back
So I'm missing one

She's the reason that I quit 'em
Yeah she was always on my ass
But she ain't here to check my jacket pocket
So I bought a brand new pack
Now it's missing one
Oh yeah I'm missing one

I hate the way it hurts like hell
I wanna want somebody else
Girls in here can't help tonight
Cause I'm missing one

It used to race like Kentucky
And it'd go crazy in her arms
Skipping beats sending thunder through these veins
Back when I had a heart
Now I'm missing one
Oh yeah I'm missing one

I hate the way it hurts like hell
I wanna want somebody else
Girls in here can't help tonight
Cause I'm missing one, yeah

Yeah I'm missing one, missing one, missing one
Yeah I'm missing one, missing one, missing one
Oh I'm missing one, missing one, missing one

I hate the way it hurts like hell
I wanna want somebody else
Girls in here can't help tonight
Cause I'm missing one
Oh I'm missing one, yeah
Oh I'm missing one, missing one, missing one
