

Some Girls

Jameson Rodgers

Pictures on her phone and tears in her eyes
Waterproof makeup ain't made for a breakup on a Saturday night
Then it's hey how you been, good how 'bout you
Funny how seeing you once after a few months
Gets you locked out
Right back to telling folks you know I know
All about some new guy taking you out
Then you unfollow me then follow me back
Just so I know you're still around

Some girls get their mama on the phone
Take a trip back home, pretend they never knew the guy
Some girls drink a bottle of wine
Got an old ex to text to get 'em through the getting by
Sometimes it's a clean break, stay gone
Clean slate moving on to something new
Sometimes some girls make it easy on you
But some girls never do

Some hearts stay broke, some hearts don't skip a beat
Some people say goodbye then try to make it alright
Just like you're doing to me, but tonight I'm letting it ring

Some girls get their mama on the phone
Take a trip back home, pretend they never knew the guy
Some girls drink a bottle of wine
Got an old ex to text to get 'em through the getting by
Sometimes it's a clean break, stay gone
Clean slate, moving on to something new
Sometimes some girls make it easy on you
But some girls never do
No some girls never do

Yeah some girls know when they've got something
Worth holding on to, but some girls never do

Some girls get their mama on the phone
Take a trip back home, pretend they never knew the guy
Some girls drink a bottle of wine
Got an old ex to text to get 'em through the getting by
Sometimes it's a clean break, stay gone
Clean slate, moving on to something new
Sometimes some girls make it easy on you
But some girls never do

Yeah some girls never do
Sometimes some girls make it easy on you
But some girls never do
