

Honest

Jamestown Story

There it goes*
This stable that I've come to know
And now im bbroken with nowhere to go

So well wait here and hope to Rebuild myself

Yeah, I know
That my problems don't matter to most
So I hold them all in
Yo explore at a time
When we all know
And so incomplete

Yeah I'll be honest
Days like today make me strongest
So insecure
But I'll make it through
At least I hope I do this time
Cause I need some comfort tonight
(Comfort tonight)

Yeah I was told
By a doctor I have no control
So he threw me some pills and said go
I should hope that this will help with your crazy tendencies and dependencie s

Yeah I'll be honest
Days like today make me strongest
So insecure
But I'll make it through
At least I hope I do this time
This timeeee

Help me understand why I am this way
I don't want to hide
I just want to escape
Take me away from these feelings of hate towards myself

I cant believe that life works this way
I've fallen hard and its hard not to stay
Down on the ground where i feel i belong

Yeah I'll be honest
Days like today make me strongest
So insecure
But I'll make it through
At least I hope I do this time
Cause I need some comfort tonight
Comfort tonight
