

Never Enough

Jamestown Story

I've been looking back at all the things that I've done
I'm a sad excuse for a man
The years have come and gone

And I'm still struggling here
Yeah I do what I can

I'm a loser, I'm a loser
I'm a mess, yeah I'm more than a wreck
Can you help me? Can you save me?
From this mess
Before I lose all I have

Ones' just for fun
Twos' for a buzz
And I'm on my tenth cause it's never enough
Watch me consume
It's all I can do
Yeah it makes me forget
All the things that I've wanted to do
(Yeah I've wanted to do)

Lately I've been seeing all the damage I've done
And it can't be repaired
You'd think that'd slow me down
But all the damage is done
So I don't really care

I'm a loser, I'm a loser
I'm a mess, yeah I'm worse than a wreck
You can help me, you can save me
From this mess
Just turn your head when I ask

Ones' just for fun
Twos' for a buzz
And I'm on my tenth cause it's never enough
Watch me consume
It's all I can do
Yeah it makes me forget all the things that I've wanted

Yeah I'm okay, yeah I'm okay, yeah
Well okay that's a lie
Yeah I'm okay, I'm okay yeah
Let the liquor bring me life till the day that I die
Yeah I'm okay, I'm okay, yeah
But I need help tonight
Yeah I'm okay, yeah I'm okay yeah.
