

Grace is Gone

Jamie Cullum

Can't find all the words yet
It's still not the time yet
And my mind can't think of anything
It only sees you

You know I am trying
God knows I am trying
And why does the wind keeps shouting out
It's still not over

I keep on trying
I think I'm learning
To live in hearts you leave behind
Is not to die, Grace

Can't find the right place
Is there a right place?
Where I can make it all make sense somehow
And face tomorrow

I keep on trying
I think I'm learning
To live in hearts you leave behind
Is not to die, Grace

The world goes 'round some
We move along some
To live in hearts theirs and mine
Is not to die, Grace.....
