

Usher

Jamie Cullum

Take me down to no man's land tonight
I used to find my God under the flashing lights
I met Him in Tribeca in 2002, He told me
"Love is the truth inside a life that's cruel"

So get me a time machine
To relive my dreams
So get me a time machine
To relive my dreams

Yeah, did I ever tell ya that I used to know Usher?
Did I ever tell ya, tell ya?
Did I ever tell ya that I used to know Usher?
But I'm telling ya, he ain't no you
He ain't no you
He ain't no you

He said to me "There's nothing on the other side, c'mon
Everyone you love someday will die
But when you bring the party but you also bring the truth
Life is a beauty for a minute or two"

So get me a time machine
To relive my dreams
So get me a time machine
To relive my dreams

Yeah, did I ever tell ya that I used to know Usher?
Did I ever tell ya, tell ya?
Did I ever tell ya that I used to know Usher?
But I'm telling ya, he ain't no you
He ain't no you
He ain't no you

Get me a time machine
Get me a time machine
Get me a time machine
Get me a time machine
Get me a time machine

Did I ever tell ya that I used to know Usher?
Did I ever tell ya, tell ya?
Did I ever tell ya that I used to know Usher?
But I'm telling ya, he ain't no you
He ain't no you
He ain't no you
