

You and Me Are Gone

Jamie Cullum

Every time I see what's written on your mind
I turn away and drop my guard
Your high horse will be the leader of the blind
Tender love and truth aside
I'm in possession of so many tones
I loved it all my life
Feel the rhythm in your very bones
I never sleep at night.

You and me are gone
You and me are gone
Winter's bitter song
You and me are gone, gone away.

Truthfully I've got the most upper hand
I never seem to finish lovin'
You train your eye and force yourself to make a stand
When it dies a warmer stuffing
Lose yourself and on the edge of reason
Teenage ears so drown
Even I don't know what I am feeling
Lost you til I'm found.

You and me are gone
You and me are gone
Winter's bitter song
You and me are gone, gone away.

Yeah...

See the joyous pro's have left my tongue
For other warmer things,
Battle songs are written to be sung
A million toxic lies.

You and me are gone
You and me are gone
You and me are gone
You and me are gone
You and me are gone
You and me are gone
