

bulletproof

Jamie Fine

Mama, who let you down?
Who made you think you weren't enough
And filled your soul with doubt?
And Dad I, needed you around
But what you needed was some space to figure yourself out

Would you go back and do it the same?
Did regret make you wanna change?
Misunderstood, under appreciated, but

Did you know I love this hard because of you?
And I've been learnin' it's a journey, as I'm walkin' in your s hoes
I'll pass along all of your lessons
Took some time but I got your message
If you ever wonder why I'm bulletproof
It's all because of you

Oh I, I wish that I could say
I was the picture perfect sister when you needed me
And we might see it differently
But now we're old enough to know that we both made mistakes

I'd go back and do it the same
Guess I'm good at takin' the blame
Misunderstood, under appreciated, but

Did you know I love this hard because of you?
And I've been learnin' it's a journey, as I'm walkin' in your s hoes
I'll pass along all of your lessons
Took some time but I got your message
If you ever wonder why I'm bulletproof
It's all because of you
Did you know I love this hard because of you?
And I've been learnin' it's a journey, as I'm walkin' in your s hoes
I'll pass along all of your lessons
Took some time but I got your message
If you ever wonder why I'm bulletproof
It's all because of you

Mmm-mm, mmm-mm, mm-hmm...
