

Seconds Away

Jamie Fine

Bittersweet changes
Life's got me feeling so anxious
Trying to change it
My friends are all losing their patience
Constantly complaining
Jaded and I hate it
Uninspired craving a touch of some motivation
How do I say this?
I'm seconds away from me breaking
Maybe I quit

Questioning if this is all enough
Wondering if I'm just out of luck
I don't remember the last time I
Felt so defeated, but up so high

Won't lie, only got so much to give
My god, how'd it get this hard again?
So high, but the fall's much further than
I thought, baby

Those bittersweet changes
Life's got me feeling so anxious
Trying to change it
My friends are all losing their patience
Constantly complaining
Jaded and I hate it
Uninspired craving a touch of some motivation
How do I say this?
I'm seconds away from me breaking
Maybe I quit

Maybe I quit

I didn't think after all of this time
I'd still be looking for some form of sign
Some kind of stimulation
In anything I can find

Won't lie, only got so much to give
My god, how'd it get this hard again?
So high, but the fall's much further than
I thought, baby

Those bittersweet changes
Life's got me feeling so anxious
Trying to change it
My friends are all losing their patience
Constantly complaining
Jaded and I hate it
Uninspired craving a touch of some motivation
How do I say this?
I'm seconds away from me breaking
Maybe I
Changes
Life's got me feeling so anxious
Trying to change it

My friends are all losing their patience
Constantly complaining
Jaded and I hate it
Uninspired craving a touch of some motivation
How do I say this?
I'm seconds away from me breaking
Maybe I quit
