

Oh baby I will, yeah
I know you told me you love ... don't wanna leave him
That was your words
But you also said that he don't treat you the way you deserve
So you hoping things are gonna change, like your ...
But he's still hanging out in the streets with the homeys, on the late nights
Pick up the phone when he wanna,
Come home when he wanna, go when he wanna
Forget about you
Worry about your wants, worry about your needs
If you want a player, let him go baby, yeah

If you he don't wanna love, you, I will
If he don't wanna be faithful, baby I will
If he don't wanna treat you
Like a lady, I will
I will, I will, I will

I know I sound like a hater, but homey's a player
So let him play
But at the same time you need all the thangs that you missing
Every day
Like love baby, respect baby

What else can I say?
What is a relationship without it, oh baby

Pick up the phone when he wanna,
Come home when he wanna, go when he wanna
Forget about you
Worry about your wants, worry about your needs
If you want a player, let him go baby, yeah

If you he don't wanna love, you, I will
If he don't wanna be faithful, baby I will
If he don't wanna treat you
Like a lady, I will
I will, I will, I will

I know that ... unpredictable baby
Don't worry about it when it come
Worry about later... and making you smile
And giving you my all

If you he don't wanna love, you, I will
If he don't wanna be faithful, baby I will
If he don't wanna treat you
Like a lady, I will
I will, I will, I will    X 2
