

Rainman

Jamie Foxx

Rainman, rainman... rainman, rainman
Ca call me ca call me rainman, rainman

There's no need for me to lay out my clothes,
When she's not around there's nowhere to go,
Make no attempts getting up out of this bed,
I wanna open my eyes but I just close the curtain instead,
Her thunder storms shuts my lights off oh,
I got no missed calls maybe by tomorrow 'cause right now I can't t just catch a break

Everyday it rains when she ain't laying right here I can feel t he coolness in the air I know my chances ain't far Everyday it rains, water reaches my window seal, sound reaches my ear, go then it reappears Everyday it rains my heart starts drowning my vision gets cloud y the flood moves around me Everyday it rains no sign of the light as the time goes by 40 d ays and 40 nights

Just when I thought I gotten rid of you,
I turn my face to your pillow that's soaked in your perfume,
The water's raging no life vest and I can't swim through throug h no,
My heart, my mind, and my soul it's lost somewhere in this deep blue her thunder storms shut my lights off oooo, I got no missed calls maybe by tomorrow 'cause right now I can'
t get a break

Baby cut my lights (cut my lights)
Back on (back on baby)
Take me I'm ours (take me I'm yours) Cut my lights back on Release me (release me from the sea of love)
Oh uhh oh rainman, rainman, rainman
