Jamie Foxx

You are my favorite girl, I was your favorite guy And somehow I thought that we'd always be down (down) We went through crazy times, Inside this crazy mind, Somehow I thought that you would always be around. Somehow we changed up, we flamed up And every day you're fighting with me. (baby, baby, baby) And then it came up, I asked did you love me, Who knew that would be the last time we speak. All I could say is why (why, why) What did I do? What did I say? I didn't see this coming All I can say is Why why, why why why why why why For the last two months I was Kissing you goodbye Bye bye bye bye bye bye Kissing you goodbye Bye bye bye bye bye Behind your lovely eyes, Couldn't see those lovely thighs That couldn't break her in over a course of time You could unbreak this glass heart, By just saying we're not apart By how can I go on knowing my love is blind? So many makes ups, So many break ups I never thought I'd see u leave, (you leave, you leave) I'ma put it to rest; because all I want is the best for you, You still haven't told me how I hurt so I deserve the answer to, Why (why, why) What did I do? What did I say? I didn't see this coming All I can say is Why why, why why why why why For the last two months I was Kissing you goodbye Bye bye bye bye bye bye Kissing you goodbye Bye bye bye bye bye All baby how, can you leave me like this Through all the smiles, and all the cries, The love we had I thought was divide No why, could u do me like this, I guess love question lesson would have learned to say There are no real answers to Why (why, why) ohhhhhhhhh What did I do? What did I say? I didn't see this coming Ohhhhhhhhhhhhh Why why, ahhh baby why For the last two months I was Kissing you goodbye

Bye bye bye bye bye bye

Baby whyyy, shawty why.
You are my favorite girl,
I was your favorite guy
And somehow I thought that we'd always be down (down)
