Jamie Grace

I don't want no drama, I don't want no games 2x

What's the deal with girls?
We're friends until we're not
I don't understand it
You can't sit with us
You're not cool enough
It don't even matter
I, I tell myself as I sit alone
That I never really wanted them to care
The lies goes on and on and

I don't know why
You look in my eye and you smile
Until my back is to the other side

2x
I don't want no drama, I don't want no games
Put it in the box, in the box where it came
I don't want no drama, I don't want no games
Put it in the box, no, I don't wanna play

Ay-oh, ay-oh
I don't wanna play, no
Ay-oh, ay-oh
I don't wanna play

What's the deal with us?
Why don't we show more love?
I don't understand it
Why we seem so tough?
This ain't a battleground
Don't you know that
One, one little word
Can keep me up at night
Lemme tell you that
You might have clean hands
But your tongue could be a knife, oh

I don't know why
You look in my eye and you smile
Until my back is to the other side

2x
I don't want no drama, I don't want no games
Put it in the box, in the box where it came
I don't want no drama, I don't want no games
Put it in the box, no, I don't wanna play

Ay-oh, ay-oh
I don't wanna play, no
Ay-oh, ay-oh
I don't wanna play

When we get bored, get a board
Try to play a little game
Treat people, talk to them

Any kind of way
I remember 6th grade
Same table every day
Nobody sits beside me
But now they love to hear me sing
Careful how you treat the kid that never fit in
Your words might hurt more than you could ever think
When the wound's so deep we act just to heal it
But act on who you are not how you're feeling

Beautiful, the way you are
Wonderful, even with your scars
Lovely, every little bit
No matter what you think, it is what it is

Ay-oh, ay-oh
Ay-oh, ay-oh
I don't wanna play

I don't want your drama, I don't want your games
Put it in the box, in the box where it came
