

Hold The Conversation

Jamie Grace

Beautifully broken, humbly amused
Solid understanding, When I'm with you
Searching for promise, stepping out on faith
Knowing you'll lead me, with every beat my heart makes

So hold the conversation
My lonely heart is aching
Rid of my inhibition
And conquer my frustration
I'm listening, I'm listening
My soul is opening

So hold the conversation
My lonely heart is aching
Rid of my inhibition
Conquer my frustration
I'm listening, I'm listening
My soul is opening

Trusting the process, disarm my defense
I surrender my ego, as freedom's tears descend

So hold the conversation
My lonely heart is aching
Rid of my inhibition
And conquer my frustration
I'm listening, I'm listening
My soul is opening

So hold the conversation
My lonely heart is aching
Rid of my inhibition
Conquer my frustration
I'm listening, I'm listening
My soul is opening

I'm on the edge of everything I've ever known
Losing myself to find my way back home
The weight is lifted when I'm carried through
By you, by you

So hold the conversation
My lonely heart is aching
Rid of my inhibition
And conquer my frustration
I'm listening, I'm listening
My soul is opening

So hold the conversation
My lonely heart is aching
Rid of my inhibition
Conquer my frustration
I'm listening, I'm listening
My soul is opening
