

Brave

Jamie Lawson

Jesus, do I miss her
If she were mine to miss, Jesus, would I miss her more?
Jesus, have you seen her, everlasting like a sundown?
Doesn't burn at all

She is kindness to my skin, forgiveness through my sin
She knows everyone I've been and has not loved them all
She set my heart on fire
She knows I am a lion
Will it only burn for her?
Well I don't know

Jesus, do I miss her
If she were mine to miss, Jesus, would I miss her more?
Jesus, have you seen her, everlasting like a sundown
Doesn't burn at all

She is kindness to my skin, forgiveness through my sin
She knows everyone I've been and has not loved them all
She set my heart on fire
She knows I am a lion
Will it only burn for her?
Well I don't know

She is burning for me now and I feel the sun on me shining down
I know that I am awake
And sometime soon I guess we'll crash
We have love that wasn't meant to last, better to burn out and fade away
Or maybe for once in my life, maybe for once in my life I'll be

It's all I ever wanted
Love can be held and I'm going to need your love
I need your love
I need your love to keep me warm
Come on, keep me warm
And hold on to me now, hold on, hold on Baby we can find a way to make this stay and keep it here
