

Chasing

Jamie Lawson

I've been running after
Dreams and getting close
Waiting on the rapture
Crashing into goals
Lining on the airwaves
Burning in my blood
Used to feel the fire
Now the fire's not enough

And I don't know what I'm chasing
Is it a little less heartache or a little bit more?
This used to feel amazing
Am I erasing all the reasons I got into this for?
I don't know what I'm chasing anymore

They say you only get your one chance
That's all that [?]
I saved it in the sunlight
But I lost it in the dark

And I don't know what I'm chasing
Is it a little less heartache or a little bit more?
This used to feel amazing
Now I'm erasing all the reasons I got into this for
I don't know what I'm chasing
I don't know what I'm chasing

Is it fortune? Is it glory?
Is it an ending to the story?
Is it time or a sign? A memory or gold?
If I held it, would I even know?
I don't know what I'm chasing
No, I don't know what I'm chasing, oh no

And I don't know what I'm chasing
Is it a little less heartache or a little bit more?
This used to feel amazing
Am I erasing all the reasons I got into this for?
I don't know what I'm chasing
I don't know what I'm chasing
I don't know what I'm chasing anymore
