

Testify

Jamie Lawson

Chemicals are shiftin'
Places that I lived in
Disappear into the haze
Too many years spent driftin'
Livin' for evenin'
Too many nights not enough days

How was I to know there's somethin' else about you
Couldn't live without you, even if I tried
How was I to know that somethin' in the ether
Would make me a believer, of all the love inside

Take my heart and testify
To be here by my side
Take my heart and testify
To be here by my side

To be here
To be here
To be here

[?] I've been fakin'
All these nights been drinkin'
Lost without a reason why
Now I'm no longer sick
Something's got me drinkin'
And in the moment you arrived

How was I to know there's somethin' else about you
Couldn't live without you, even if I tried
How was I to know that somethin' in the ether
Would make me a believer, of all the love inside

Take my heart and testify
To be here by my side
Take my heart and testify
To be here by my side

To be here
To be here
To be here

Maybe once in a lifetime
You'll hold on to a lifeline
Don't ever let go
You were once in a lifetime
You're the blood in my lifeline
I won't ever let go

Take my heart and testify
To be here by my side
Take my heart and testify
To be here by my side
Take my heart and testify
To be here by my side
Take my heart and testify
To be here by my side
