

Unbreakable

Jamie MacDonald

Before the crowds and flashing lights
You had a heart before the lies
Knew you would change, stuck by your side
Through all the lows, through all the highs
I put my head up in the clouds when I'm feeling low
And I know even if I fall from the highest floor-

Can't break me, unbreakable
Can't change me
People fall all the time, but I'm still standing
Can't break me, unbreakable
Can't change me
People fall all the time, but I'm still standing

I'm still standing, still ain't fall
Bruised and broken through it all
Lord, you prepped me, never left me with my back against the wall
I gotta- I gotta give You Your glory
I thought I messed up my story, somehow You wrote it before me
I've been waiting for so long, I've been praying for so long
'Til the day that I get home, I keep on fighting and pushing along
I know it's worth it so I'm holding on Dealing with pressure to be who I'm not Fighting though evil desires I got
I see Him coming, I'm thinking of running
And playing with fire, it's finna get hot

Burdens keep weighing me down, feeling like I'm gonna drown
You give me strength and the power, kept it together somehow
I'm unbreakable, yeah, I'm unshakable, yeah
It's Your Spirit living in me, got me breaking through

Can't break me, unbreakable
Can't change me
People fall all the time, but I'm still standing
Can't break me, unbreakable
Can't change me
People fall all the time, but I'm still standing

Can You wash away these stains off of a broken soul?
Please restore my Spirit, clean me up and make me whole
Hear my heart cry out for mercy that I don't deserve
Can You heal all of these wounds I got with holy words
I've been on this lonely road with these burdens I can't hold
Born in sin, I know I'm wrong, so I pray all of 'em fold
Uh, yeah, I gotta give You Your glory
I thought I messed up my story, somehow You wrote it before me, yeah

Burdens keep weighing me down, feeling like I'm gonna drown
You give me strength and the power, kept it together somehow
I'm unbreakable, yeah, I'm unshakable, yeah
It's Your Spirit living in me, got me breaking through

Can't break me, unbreakable
Can't change me
People fall all the time, but I'm still standing
Can't break me, unbreakable

Can't change me
People fall all the time, but I'm still standing
