

Goodbye Ohio

Jamie McDell

Four days out of her head again
Got distracted by the rain
She'll come back to her American dream
She'll get back on the stage

Spent 39 of their best years
Living for a good time
Cause he'd be waiting in a borrowed RV
For her to say her goodbyes

They sang
Goodbye Ohio
Goodbye Ohio

She got harder playing underground bars
He got wise with small change
Good songs made it round the block those days
So people came and they came

They sang
Goodbye Ohio

69 was their best year
Moved their things to LA
No more wishing on American dreams
Real life fortune and fame

Goodbye Ohio
Goodbye Ohio

She moved home the day the news came in
Packed their records away
God don't answer for a tyres loose grip
She don't cry for his fate

She sings
Goodbye Ohio
Oh why Ohio
Oh why Ohio
