

Imagination

Jamie McDell

Living broken dreams
Filing memories away
Painting midnight skies
Moving keep me satisfied

And you, you're unreal to me
And I can't see, what I feel
Imagination and living in the dark
So far from everything that's real
I'm trying to believe when I don't know who you are
My imaginary heart

Living fantasies
Cause they don't mean a thing to me (ayy yeah)
Making my way outside
I'm walking and covering my eyes

And you...you're unreal to me
And I can't see...what I feel (yeah)
Imagination and living in the dark
So far from everything that's real
I'm trying to believe when I don't know who you are
My imaginary heart

When nothing's real
And it's all a dream (yeah)
When I'm in this life
Instead of what it seems

Imagination and living in the dark
So far from everything that's real
I'm trying to believe when I don't know who you are
My imaginary heart
