

Losing You

Jamie McDell

Heart beating
I feel you leaving
As I sit inside my room
No answers
Just questions
Of how this day became so cruel

You were drifting away

Never thought that this could happen
Everything we had is slipping fast
And I'm still stuck in the past
Still wondering why
Suddenly I'm not the only
One who's gonna make you happy
And I can't believe it's coming to
The day I'm losing you
The day I'm losing you

At your front door
But you don't answer
I need you now but no one's home
Holding inside
The fears in my mind
Of living in this life alone

You were drifting away

Never thought that this could happen
But everything we had is slipping fast
And I'm still stuck in the past
Still wondering why
Suddenly I'm not the only
One who's gonna make you happy
And I can't believe it's coming to
The day I'm losing you
The day I'm losing you

You've always been there
And I am so scared
Of saying goodbye
Now there's no more us
So watch that door shut
As you leave my side

Never thought that this could happen
But everything we had is slipping fast
And I'm still stuck in the past
Still wondering why
Suddenly I'm not the only
One who's gonna make you happy
And I can't believe it's coming to

Never thought that this could happen
Everything we had is slipping fast
And I'm still stuck in the past

Suddenly I'm not the only
The day I'm losing you
The day I'm losing you
