

Not Ready Yet

Jamie McDell

I wanna drive my car from here to California
I wanna join a band and play my songs real loud
I wanna wear my princess dress down to the sports bar
And dance around till some jock kicks me out

But I should pay my bills and make my bed
Trade my dreaming for a happy end
But I'm not ready yet
And I should save my money for a bigger house
Have four babies and settle down
But I, I'm not ready yet

I wanna take five years to write a book on pirates
And take a shot each word that I can't spell
I wanna fill my hair with blue two dollar diamonds
And run through every hall in this hotel

But I should pay my bills and make my bed
Trade my dreaming for a happy end
But I'm not ready yet
And I should save my money for a bigger house
Have four babies and settle down
But I, I'm not ready yet

You don't gotta worry
You don't gotta rush me
I'll get around to it
One of these days

Yeah, I might pay my bills and make my bed
Trade my freedom for a guy named Ned
But I, I'm not ready yet

I'm gonna pay my bills and make my bed
Trade my dreaming for a happy end
But I'm not ready yet
And I should save my money for a bigger house
Say I'm sorry if I let you down
But I, I'm not ready yet
Oh no I, I'm not ready yet
Oh no I, I'm not ready yet
