

Intro

Jamie Miller

"Hiya, mate, just wanted to say that everything's gonna be fine
I promise you, pal. You're gonna get through all of this
I love you and I'm super proud of you
It's your time to choose yourself now
Onwards and upwards. Love you, pal"

I never listen to my body
When it tells me there's somethin' wrong
I never follow what my heart feels
So I end up where I don't belong

I've picked up a lot of bad habits
Like sayin' it's right when it's wrong
But I'm tired of being somebody
The somebody someone else wants

"So, I woke up today
And I just feel like... I just feel like I'm losing it all
I just feel like I'm just
I don't know how to be happy
I don't know! Like, I'm trying my best, and it's just
I just don't know how to be happy
This was
It's scary, it really is!"

All the years that I spent in the darkness
So convinced it was me all along
Broken and bleedin' and fallin' to pieces
Till all the fight in me was gone

Like I'm stupid, I'm worthless, I'm never enough
I believe what you told me, it hurts
But I'm done with being somebody
The somebody someone else wants
