

Feels so Good

Jamie Scott

How come, how come you don't smile so much?
The little sun don't seem to come around sooner
When you're out luck you need those

Pink shoes, hair down
Ready for the weekend
And high hopes somehow

Heard a little bit of rock 'n' roll on the radio tonight
Feels so good
Put a little something that you want you on the stereo tonight
Make it good
Make it good
Feels so good
Feels so good

You sing 'cause it makes you happy now

Seventeen, you danced while the star fell down
You're still happy now

Pink shoes, hair down
Ready for the weekend
And high hopes somehow

Heard a little bit of rock 'n' roll on the radio tonight
Feels so good
Put a little something that you want you on the stereo tonight
Make it good
Make it good
Feels so good
Feels so good

I can see the light breaking on your face again
I can see the mountains moving in the distance
I can see the light breaking on your face again
I can see the mountains moving
When I

Heard a little bit of rock 'n' roll on the radio tonight
Feels so good
Put a little something that you want you on the stereo tonight
Make it good
Heard a little bit of rock 'n' roll on the radio tonight
Feels so good
Put a little something that you want you on the stereo tonight
Make it good
Make it good
Feels so good
Feels so good