

Fire Fire

Jamie T

Lost by mistake, people, they don't know me
Shout "Fire, fire" when they're getting raped
Jealousy and hate keeps us together
When we're down in the bottom of the barrel
Lost by mistake, people, they don't know me
Shout "Fire, fire" when they're getting raped
Jealousy and hate keeps us together
When we're down in the bottom of the barrel

Said, what's that hit me, Sid the shover?
Hardly stands for half a brother
Instant hit them, hot the hitter
I slug down and spear my liver
Sick and drunken, keep the chin up
The liver ain't your fault, man, why you figure?
I have no heart and I no got money
She tastes just like a nine-volt battery
Drinkin' it down on the pissed-up corner
Lookin' out of order, friends and their foes
Everyone knows, everyone sees
Sniffin' up blow, secret scrubber
It's not surer, I sure the car then call her
If it ain't her fault, man, leave her alone
No! Lola, Lola!

Lost by mistake, people, they don't know me
Shout "Fire, fire" when they're getting raped
Jealousy and hate keeps us together
When we're down in the bottom of the barrel
Lost by mistake, people, they don't know me
Shout "Fire, fire" when they're getting raped
Jealousy and hate keeps us together
When we're down in the bottom of the barrel

Well, there's bodies rottin' in the clay
Boys are screamin', "No Parlez"
Victims run to fire safety
By guys on checkpoint Charlie
Hardly partly for a Barley fever
Run to the boiler room, pull the lever
Either you're with us or with the Grim Reaper
Sierra Oscar Tango, receiver
I'm just a man of flesh and blood
Stop lookin' up, he's not a God
Stepped on you to get to the top
When the tick tocks, I call 'em back like "Good"
I'm jammed if they stopped and I watch as they are
Can you forget me not, man of the top
And a moment of fire and passion of gods
Celebrate hatred and lootin' the city

Lost by mistake, people, they don't know me
Shout "Fire, fire" when they're getting raped
Jealousy and hate keeps us together
When we're down in the bottom of the barrel
Lost by mistake, people, they don't know me
Shout "Fire, fire" when they're getting raped

Jealousy and hate keeps us together
When we're down in the bottom of the barrel
