

Dolly Bird

Jamie Webster

Little dolly bird
Have you ever seen all the things that surround you?
Think before your words
Have a listen and all life sings will astound you
Race war in the streets outside
High rates of teenage suicide
People fighting for their lives
And coward misled kids with knives

Have you ever heard
Heard the sound of a gun or the hungry crying?
Little dolly bird
No, I don't see how you could lose your spend time lying
Wealthy on your sunbed
And that shiny make-up forehead's not real
Just doing it how you feel

We all have the same 24 hours in a day
It's up to you what to do with it, really
But don't dare break the law
Or we'll be breaking up the party

So freely criticize them
Yet you hardly recognize them
Now you're trying to advise them
As you equally surmise them
Compelling with your lies
And telling us that they're to blame
You ought to hang your head in shame

Some miles away
Lies Suzanna and Tony
With a cafe in their living room
Earning your pay
El Salvador, Brazil
It's far too much for your head to consume
It's a good thing you're a pretty girl
Cause that's what's got you out the gritty world
And while you work a couple hours
Suzie can't afford a shower
But to feel a little power, tell her

Take more money
Just to make more money
Crack a little smile
If the joke's not funny
You're the playboy bunny
And talking's set you up for a fall
You just don't know the world at all
All for the rise and not the fall

Remember a day, remember a time
When it wasn't such a nursery rhyme
No one to help, no one to hear
Well imagine it year after year
It's a good thing you're a pretty girl
It must be nice to be a pretty girl
