

Gravity

Jamie Woon

Money is time, time is a currency
You and I both now who you're spending yours on
You were the one
You cried for infinity
But you can't have it all
No, you can't have it all

Do I choose to be weighed down by gravity
With these thoughts that I own
Oh, I don't like this feeling of jealousy
It's not what I want

I love a girl who loves synchronicity
Stimulated by nothing more than the meeting of minds
She's all around
She's like electricity
But I can't have her all
No I can't have her all

Do I choose to be weighed down by gravity
With these thoughts that I own
Oh, I don't like this feeling of jealousy
It's not what I want

She refused to be weighed down by gravity
Now she's so holding on
She confided that love it is an energy
She's passed it on,
On, on, on
