

Pulling on a Thread

Jamie Woon

What the hell was that?!
Well, I guess I'm still intact
Coming to terms with plans I didn't have
Now that I've begun
Now I know pain is never done
Pulling on a thread
Pulling on a thread

And who the hell is that?!
Down at the bottom of my glass
Someone that I don't trust and won't accept
Now that I've begun
Now I know pain is never done
Pulling on a thread
Pulling on a thread

Be unshackled in the morning
Be the image of a dawning
Amor Fati and loving what is for the fallen

It's the hardest task
When you've forgotten you could ask
You know what to do but you don't know how to start
Now that I've begun
Now I know pain is never done
Pulling on a thread
Pulling on a thread

Be unshackled in the morning
In the damage and the dawning
Amor Fati
Loving what is without a warning

Be unshackled in the morning
Be the image of a dawning
Amor Fati
Loving what is for the fallen

Alright
Thank you!
I give in! I do!
I didn't realise
That I was just pretending I knew
Acting like a big brain
Why'd I wanna live with no doubt or maybes?
