

Can't help what I feel
Can't help what I don't feel
Emotional wreck
I can't tell if you're listening

Come in, the water's warm
I won't hurt you
I know my heart is slow
But I won't leave you
Come in, the water's warm
I won't hurt you
I know it took me long
But I won't leave you

Some people say you find the one, you make it work
Some people say, some people say
Some people say you 'pose to love yourself headfirst
Some people say, some people say
Some people say you find the one, you make it work
Some people say, some people say
Some people say you 'pose to love yourself headfirst
Some people say, some people say

Can't help what I say
Can't help what I don't say
You give one word too much power
I love you in my own way
You move mountains, mountains
Omnipotent, potent
You get jealous, jealous
You could flood us, flood us

Some people say you find the one, you make it work
Some people say, some people say
Some people say you 'pose to love yourself headfirst
Some people say, some people say (Some people say)
Some people say you find the one, you make it work
Some people say, some people say (Some people say)
Some people say you 'pose to love yourself headfirst
Some people say, some people say

Come in, the water's warm
I won't hurt you
I know my heart is slow
But I won't leave you
Come in, the water's warm
I won't hurt you
I know it took me long
But I won't leave you

Some people say you find the one, you make it work
Some people say, some people say
Some people say you 'pose to love yourself headfirst
Some people say, some people say
