

Only Tonight

Jana Kirschner

All the kisses you bleed to me
One hang around for one more day
It's all right, it's all right, you will be with me

Love letters that you sent me, sit and open and that just fine
It's all right, let's no fight, you will be mine
Please don't back me, let's no fight, you will be mine

I can see the blue escaping from the silence in your eyes
There's no one to hear your cries
I will kiss you, I will clean you,
I will save you from you since not yours tomorrow, only tonight (4x)

You've been tormenting me for so long
This time not gonna go
It's all right, it's all right, you will be mine
It's all right, just for tonight, you will be mine

I can see the blue escaping from... (4x)

I can see the blue escaping from... (4x)

There's no tomorrow, only tonight, there's no tomorrow, only tonight,....
