

I Do It For Your Love

Jane Monheit

I'm not sentimental, no one calls me tender
I keep my emotions safe inside
But I've never felt these feelings
And time just keeps revealing
A part of me I can no longer hide
The moment that I kissed your lips
I found a whole new world exists
Look what you've done with my life.

If I write your name a thousand times
Inside a heart next to mine
Act like a fool whose faith is blind
Whatever I do, I do it for your love.

I'm not one for flowers
Or talking on the phone for hours
Fancy words have never been my game
An answered prayer I never prayed
That came true anyway
Now I know I'll never be the same.

If I light a candle in the night
To see the reflexion in your eyes
You don't even need to ask me why
Whatever I do, I do it for your love.

I write your name ...
