Winter time and the frozen river Sunday afternoon They're playing hockey on the river He'll have that scar on his chin forever someday his girlfriend will say hey Where He might look out the window or not You skate as fast as you can 'til you hit the snowbank that's h ow you stop And you get your sweater from the catalogue You use your rubber boots for goal posts Ah walkin' home Don't let those Sunday afternoons Get away get away get away Break away break away break away This stick was signed by jean belliveau so don't fucking tell m e where To fucking go On Sunday afternoon Someone's dog just took the puckhe buried it it's in the snowbank your turn They rioted in the streets of montreal when they benched rocket richard it's True Don't let those Sunday afternoons Get away get away get away Break away break away break away

Don't let those Sunday afternoons
Get away get away get away
Break away break away break away
The sun is fading on the frozen river
The wind is dying down
Someone else just got called for dinner
Rosy
Hmm Sunday afternoon
