

Daddy

Janet Devlin

I'll take you out dinner then
I'll treat you to cigars
Buy you all your favourite things
Go dancing in the bars
Take you on vacation
Wherever you wanna go
Pay for your tuition
So there's nothing left to owe

I just wanna treat you right, let me take control
Not emasculate or dominate you, no

You can call me Daddy (Daddy)
'Cause I'm the one who's paying the bills
Yeah, you can call me Daddy (Daddy)
Just thank me for the diamonds and thrills
Cause I'm the man (who the man?)
Yeah, I'm the man (you the man!)
I wear the trousers and I'm looking damn good too
Call me Daddy (Daddy)
'Cause Daddy's got you

Daddy's not a given thing
It's just a state of mind
You'll never know how good it tastes
Until you take a bite
Salt will look like sugar
'Til you put it in your tea
So let me take that weight off
Let me give you what you need

I just wanna treat you right, let me take control
Not emasculate or dominate you, no

You can call me Daddy (Daddy)
'Cause I'm the one who's paying the bills
Yeah, you can call me Daddy (Daddy)
Just thank me for the diamonds and thrills
Cause I'm the man (who the man?)
Yeah, I'm the man (you the man!)
I wear the trousers and I'm looking damn good too
Call me Daddy (Daddy)
'Cause Daddy's got you

Ooh...
'Cause Daddy's got you
Ooh...

I'll treat you to those finer things
You know that you deserve
(Who's your Daddy? Who-who's your Daddy?)
No one ever has to know
That my bread's being served
(Who's your Daddy? You can call me Daddy!)
How good would it taste
Not working away or late
(Who's your Daddy? Who-who's your Daddy?)

Who cares what they've said
Can't hear them when the Rolls Royce revs

Yeah, you can call me Daddy (Daddy)
Cause I'm the one who's paying the bills
Yeah, you can call me Daddy (Daddy)
I'll buy you diamonds and pearls, but I'm no baby girl
Yes, I'm the man (who the man?)
Yeah, I'm the man (you the man!)
I wear the trousers and I look damn good too
Call me Daddy (Daddy)
I love the taboo, just gotta say thank you
'Cause Daddy's got you
