

Lay Low

Janis Ian

When you go away, it tries my patience
I ain't got a whole lot of time I always seem to end up standing at the station, crying to the end of the line I know you don't own nothing of me, or want to but ain't I got a right to say -- Baby don't go,
or the wind and the world slip away
And I end up
standing in circles again
and spinning my whole world around I can't find a friend on whom I can depend or defend, and I'm down
I've been spending all my time in limbo
You know, but you go on,
so lay low - no show until it's gone Empty bed mornings sure get lonely Ain't got a whole lot of speed
I always seem to wake up feeling homely Begging like a dog on a very short lead I know it don't mean that you don't want to love me, but ain't I got a right to shout Baby don't go,
or the wind turns the world upside down
And I end up
and spinning my whole world around
I can't find a friend on whom I can
depend or defend, and I'm down
I've been spending all my time in limbo
You know, but you go on,
so lay low - no show until it's gone
Spending all my time in limbo
You know, but you go on so lay low
No show until it's gone
Until it's gone Until it's...
