

Hindsight

Jann Arden

Hindsight 20/20, not like I got
Any way to fix the things that I've done
I knew it on the day you died that I had tried to be somebody good in side
But that don't mean I feel like I won

Eyesight 20/30, always in a hurry
Tryna live my life in one day
I'm drinking like a fish might every night, looking for a thing to fi ght
And praying for the clear light of day

Light of day

I wonder where you are
I wonder if you see me down here
I don't know what I'm doing half the time
Are you that shooting star
The one that landed out by longview
I'm pretty sure you just might be alright

Life is 50/50, all seems kind of iffy
Blink and everything disappears
It's kinda like a crapshoot and old boot, a dirty rotten aching tooth
A dream that's wrapped itself up in fear

Hindsight 20/20, not like I got any Way to fix the things that I've done
I gotta simply plow ahead and make my bed, and lie in all the things
I've said
And point myself straight into the sun

In the sun

I wonder where you are
I wonder if you see me down here
I don't know what I'm doing half the time
Are you that shooting star
The one that landed out by longview
I'm pretty sure you just might be alright
Oh, I wonder where you are
I wonder if you see me down here
I don't know what I'm doing half the time
Oh, are you that shooting star
The one that landed out by longview
I'm pretty sure you just might be
Just might be alright, oh yeah
Oh, hey