

I Belong To Nobody

Jann Arden

All of this heavy lifting
All of this over-thinking going on
Almost as if I'm living in a world
Where nothing's really right or really wrong

I never think of anyone but you
I never dream of anyone but you
But you belong to someone else
And I belong to nobody
Nobody
I belong to nobody

All of this heavy breathing
Memories of skin on skin, just souvenirs
Things that you left inside of me
Slipping around my bones, so cavalier

I never think of anyone but you
I never want for anyone but you
'Cause you belong to someone else
And I belong to nobody
I belong to nobody

Rip my heart out, take my lungs too
Crush what's left of me and you, you
You, my heart out, take my lungs too
Crush what's left of me and you, you

I never think of anyone but you
I never dream of anyone but you
'Cause you belong to someone else
And I belong to nobody
Nobody
Oh, to nobody

Rip my heart out, take my lungs too
Crush what's left of me and you, you
Rip my heart out, take my lungs too
Crush what's left of me and you, you
Crush what's left of me and you, you
Rip my heart out, take my lungs too
Crush what's left of me and you, you
