

Perfect Symphony

Jann Arden

This is life
Nobody gonna tell you that you're never
Gonna look into [?]
This is it
Nobody gonna show you that the end
Is ever something that you're gonna survive
This is all
Nobody ever gonna figure out
What makes a perfectly symmetrical line
It really is
Nobody gonna tell you that you're never
Gonna look into [?]

With all you've lost and I've gained
You count your victories with pain
This is all you'll ever be
And that's a perfect
Perfect symphony

When you fail
Pull everybody closer when you fall
Into the bottom of [?]
Then you've won
Pull everybody harder than you ever thought
You coulda when you couldn't [?]
You're everything
Leave a little bit of kindness on the moment
You've been [?]
You've ever done
Pull everybody closer when you fall
Into the bottom of [?]

With all you've lost and I've gained
You count your victories with pain
This is all you'll ever be
And that's a perfect
Perfect symphony

Ooh
Ooh

With all you've lost and I've gained
You count your victories with pain
This is all you'll ever be
And that's a perfect
Perfect symphony

Perfect, perfect
Perfect symphony
Perfect
Perfect symphony
Perfect, perfect
Perfect symphony
