

Arachnophobia

Jann

There's money in my bank account
And I don't even wanna waste it
There's honey in my buttercups
And no one ever comes to taste it

There's a spider living in the corner
Of my kitchen
When I try to say hi
I get paralyzed
Forget I've got
Arachnophobia

I store my fear and my pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break
If I store fear and pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break

I store my fear and my pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break
If I store fear and pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break

I store my fear and my pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break
If I store fear and pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break

I store my fear and my pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break
If I store fear and pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break

I store my fear and my pain
In the nape of my neck
I won't let you inside
I won't fall, I won't break
If I store fear and pain
I won't let you inside

I store my fear and my pain
I won't let you inside
If I store fear and pain
I won't break
