

burns

Jann

When you're in your own zone
Staying sure that you're right
You can't see
That you're burning the bridge
That is the only way
To you
And no matter who tries
They can't reach out to you
Without blisters all over their hands
And as soon as you see
That there's nobody here
You are burning up in your own flames
