

Continuous Thunder

Japandroids

Heart's terrain is never a prairie
But you weren't wary
You took my hand
Through the cold, pissing rain
Dressed to the nines
Arm in arm with me tonight

Singing out loud
Like continuous thunder

Heart's terrain is never a prairie
But you weren't wary
You took my hand
Through the cold, pissing rain
Dressed to the nines
Arm in arm with me tonight

Singing out loud
Like continuous thunder

If I had all of the answers
And you had the body you wanted
Would we love with a legendary fire?

If I had all of the answers
And you had the body you wanted
Would we love with a legendary fire?

And if the cold, pissing rain flooded that fire
Would you still take my hand tonight?

Singing out loud
Like continuous thunder
