

One Without the Other

Japandroids

It just feels right, when the one you love
Looking like that, says
Please stay, don't want you to go
We barely slept, woke up like, whoa

In a car, next stop airport bar
Agent though ain't having that
Here's your boarding pass, baby
And your passport back
Best run
Already late
Through security then straight to the gate
I was starving but there ain't no time
Said fuck it
Slammed a wine
Shit, paging me
Near tears, squirming in my seat
First class but feeling bleak

Drifted into a dream
I was back in bed
And it made me

Wanna cry my way back to America
And I don't give a damn, ain't even trying to hide
Gimme two bottles of anything
Leaving one I love

Wanna cry my way back to America
And I don't give a damn, ain't even trying to hide
Gimme two bottles of anything
Leaving one I love

One, one
One, one
One without the other
One without the other
One without the other
One without the other

This thing, baby
I'm all in
Lost and lovesick until
I see you again

This thing, baby
I'm all in
Lost and lovesick until
I see you again
