

We Are The Prophecy

Jarboe

I am talking to you
And you know that Everything I have
I give to you
But I still hide
A secret
And you'll never touch me there
I'm going to the mountain with my knowledge
I'm going to the mountain
Going to the mountain with my knowledge
With my knowledge
And when the heavens crack
And when my heart is yours
When walls tumble down
The gate will shatter
And light comes down
And walks through
The dead who rise
For the kingdom come
And the holy one
We will ascend
And take the hand
Of Gabriel
And the sky opens up
Just for us
And I hear him speak
I hear your heart
I hear your heart
I hear your heart
