

Cookie Dough

Jared Evan

Why, why there's a saying not to try oh
Won't be deserving oh
Peace of mind oh
We won't come down we like it
Like this we're fine
Won't change my soul in this cookie dough
Waste my mind

They don't ever wanna let you go
All they wanna do is turn you into cookie dough
They don't ever wanna let you go
All they wanna do is turn you into cookie dough
They don't ever wanna let you go
All they wanna do is turn you into cookie dough
(Cookie dough)
They'll turn you into cookie dough

They try to understand my vision
They'll never see it, they never believe what I'm being
And what I'm being is ill
Ill is what I'm being, I am being that still I'm raw, I cannot be cut
If I am you will not eat me, I'm poison to the gut
I'm Salmonella, pimp a butterfly but I'm the caterpillar
I'm rapping without Michael but I got the Thriller
We won't come down we like it
Like this we're fine (oh, oh)
Won't change my soul in this cookie dough
Waste my mind
