Jared Evan

Lately I've slept alone
But my dreams will keep me company, oh
I've been asleep too long, save me

Destiny, is what I fear
One second too slow, everything is gone
Just like the wind, when it blows down, down

You dropped it all, it's too late
I'm all the way home
I tried to call, but no ring

You're all the way, home (home)

Time is lost
Is there a way to reignite? Oh
Standing still, I'll just wait, Oh
I just want you to feel

Destiny, is what I fear
One second too slow, everything is gone
Just like the wind, when it blows down, down
