Repeat

Jared Evan

[Verse 1]
Welcome to whatever again
What a world to be in
Where you could be authentic, inventive
Whatever you is
It don't matter where you from or all the damage you did
Took a sabbatical
I'm trapping you, like gravity is
Killing mics just like my last LP
I Run The Jewels
You motherf*ckers, y'all can't cancel me
I pay my dues, you got a bag
But it's a bag of weed
Uppercut you in the gut you f*cking punk
You'll never Ashton me
And I hate to be a hypocrite
And always be a critic on your written shit
But, you f*cking suck. You f*cking idiot
Only want to mimic it
All you do is focus on the ill intent
Always acting childish cause the internet
A fire spitter that's armed with nine heaters
A silver bullet, know that I pull it like Bob Seger (yeah)
Just play the beat to the song
This is the part that you repeat when it's on, on
Right
[Chorus]
This is the art form
We rock on and pop y'all
With the drop y'all, we top off
And knock y'all
It's the art form, it's our song
We got more where we left off
We rock on and on and on
The art form we rock y'all and pop off
With the drop y'all
We top all, we rock y'all
With the art form
With the art form, right?

[Verse 2]
Send me the racks
Send me the plaques
Cause I deserve the accolades these artists lack
I got a question for anybody who raps
Do you also make your own merch and sell it back?
Is all you do just take selfies and filter that?
Are you just looking for attention cause you're wack?
It seems like it
You keep typing
Writing all of your captions wrong
While I'm a slave to my pen and pad like a labrador
Sabotage
All you wack MCs that be acting hard
Can't be so stagnant, I'm travelling like a vagabond
Gregory Hines with the rhymes
The way I'm tapping y'all

Rapping is magic
Abracadabra the rabbit's gone
You ain't never heard him freak like this
You just a biter
You probably want to eat my shit (what)
Just play the beat to the song
This is the part that you repeat when it's on, on
[Chorus]
This is the art form
We rock on and pop y'all
With the drop y'all, we top off
And knock y'all
It's the art form, it's our song
We got more where we left off
We rock on and on and on
The art form we rock y'all and pop off
With the drop y'all
We top all we rock y'all
With the art form
With the art form, right?
Of whatever
