

At Least You Know

Jarreau Vandal

At least you know
At least you know it
Ain't cause of you
At least you know
At least you know
Wondering at home

Babe its fine, it's all you 'cause
You can leave him 'cause, you know
Babe its fine he broke your trust
When he gave your love he's a waste man love
No lie, baby, I know the feeling that's in your mind
I know you feel like taking his life
Nevermind, nevermind, it weren't the right time
You''ll find, you'll find love

At least you know
At least you know it
Ain't cause of you
At least you know
At least you know
Wondering at home (ooh)

Days and nights you spend alone
Days and nights on answer phones
Yet he say you hiding some Better [?] telling you where you should be
Must be crazy, yeah
He was acting like your father, talking like your father
But he calmed down real quick when he walked into your father
Nevermind, nevermind, it weren't the right time
You''ll find, you'll find love

At least you know
At least you know it
Ain't cause of you
At least you know
At least you know
Wondering at home

It's alright my love, my love
You'll be alright my love, my love
You'll be alright my love, my love
You'll be alright my love, my love
You'll be alright

At least you know
At least you know it
Ain't cause of you
At least you know
At least you know
Wondering at home

It's alright my love, my love
You'll be alright my love, my love
You'll be alright my love, my love
You'll be alright my love, my love

You'll be alright
